- Environmental organizations
- And nearly all other 501(c)(3) nonprofits (US) or organizations recognized as nonprofits by the an IRS equivalent organization (internationally)

Verizon offers two types of matching grants:

1 Individual Matching Grants

2 Verizon matches individual employee donations up to $5,000 to higher education or $1,000 to nearly any other nonprofit.

3 Team Champions program

4 When teams of 10 or more Verizon employees collectively raise funds for a nonprofit or school, Verizon will match the funds raised up to $10,000 per team and event.

Submission Process: Employees / donors should register their matching gift requests electronically by logging in at <http://www.verizon.com/about/employee-and-retiree-giving-login/> to access the matching donation form.

Submission Deadline:

Employees have until end of January in the year following when the donation was made to submit a matching gift request

Volunteer Grant Programs

Offered: Yes

Minimum Hours: 50 Hours

Corporate donation: $750 grants for up to two organizations

Through Verizon's Volunteer Incentive Program (VIP), the company provides grants to nonprofits where employees volunteer on a regular basis.

After Verizon employees volunteer 50 hours with an organization in a year, Verizon provides a volunteer grant of $750 to that organization.

Each Verizon employee can request up to two separate $750 grants each year as long as 50 hours have been volunteered with each organization.

Note: While Verizon's matching gift program is open to retirees, the volunteer grant program is only available to current employees.

Additional details are available at <https://doublethedonation.com/forms/verizon-volunteer-grant-guidelines.pdf>.

Submission Process:

Employees / volunteers should log their hours and request volunteer grants electronically by logging in at <http://www.verizon.com/about/employee-and-retiree-giving-login/>.
